

Howard Hale Long, Ph.D.

1888 - 1948

Ph.D. Educational
Psychology, 1933
Harvard University

Dr. Long served as Dean of Pain College and Dean of the School of Education at Knoxville College before becoming Superintendent of Public Schools in Washington, DC He spent 20 years leading education research for D.C.Public Schools. He is known for his publications on educational psychology.