

Gilbert Haven Jones, Ph.D.

1881 - 1966

Ph.D. Philosophy 1907
University of Jena, GERMANY

Gilbert Haven Jones, served as Professor of Philosophy and Psychology, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts (1914-1924), President (1924-1932) of Wilberforce University. He was the first African American with a Ph.D. to teach Psychology in the United States. He wrote extensively about Education, Pedagogical practices and the value of Philosophy within the disciplines of Education, Psychology and Religion.