

Joseph Cyrus Awkard, Ph.D.

1920 - 2006

Ed.D. Psychology 1943
University of Virginia 1964

Dr Joseph Cyrus Awkard was a decorated WWII veteran, author and a professor of Psychology at the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and Florida A&M University. He served as advisor to the American Psychological Association Committee on Equal Opportunity in Psychology, the Congressional Task Force on Education of Exceptional Children and to the US Congressional Black Caucus. He also served as president of the National Association of Black Psychologists.